Dear Whom it may Concern ,

Mr Fathalrhman Adam is invited to participate in the forth Deep Learning Indaba. The Indaba will take place from the 21st to 26th August 2022, at SUP'COM Higher School of Communication in Tunis, Tunisia

The Deep Learning Indaba is a series of master classes that brings advanced knowledge of Machine Learning and Deep Learning to students, researchers and industry professionals. This brings together experts from across the world to expose researchers to state-of-the-art methods and practical skills. Fathalrhman 's attendance and contribution will be highly appreciated, and contributes to the diversity of perspectives that is an important part of the Indaba.

The Deep Learning Indaba is sponsoring Fathalrhman 's accommodation. Accommodation is confirmed at Foyer Universitaire Balkis Menzah 7 from 20 August 2022 to 27 August 2022. They will be responsible for their own travel expenses and other expenses related to attendance (e.g., travel insurance) and are solely responsible for obtaining any required travel visas. We authorise that this electronic version of the invitation letter can be used for visa purposes.

Regularly updated information on the Indaba and the schedule is available at deeplearningindaba.com. If there are any questions or further information that we can provide, please do not hesitate to contact us at info@deeplearningindaba.com or any of the organisers below directly.
